

Fluitecnik, S.A., dedicated to the design, manufacture, assembly, installation, marketing and maintenance of components and systems in the field of industrial automation and renewable energy, communicates its:

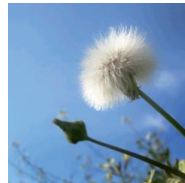

Quality, Environment and Health and Safety Policy

Within its integrated management policy, Fluitecnik's management leads the continuous improvement in the organization, with the participation of all its members. For this purpose, the following points of commitment are established:

People

- Develop this work as a part of a team
- Technically competent
- Honest
- Responsible
- Adequately trained
- Providing safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of injuries and deterioration of work health

Environment. Society. Health and Safety

- Environmental prevention
- Pollution prevention
- Socially responsible
- Eliminating hazards and reducing occupational health and safety risks
- Participation and consultation of workers and their representatives

Continuous improvement

- Service and product quality
- Environmental behavior
- Occupational health and safety
- Management system and objectives

Requirement

- Ensure compliance with:
- Legal requirements
 - Regulatory requirements
 - Clients' and suppliers' requirements